Net Guimpes at 95c

Really worth $1.50. They are to be worn with the one piece dresses; some with entire sleeve of all over lace, others with half-sleeve; all a net and all new and effective designs of Valenciennes and fancy lace nets. Sizes are 36 to 42 bust measure. Two of these would not cost so very much more than the price of one ordinarily, and they are so convenient to have all ready to put on and no fuss or bother in making them.

Neckwear Department—Street Floor.

DR. EGGLESTON'S LECTURE.

Large Audience at Young People's Building Last Night Hear School Superintendent.

The Young People's Building was filled last night by an audience which had gathered to hear the address of J. D. Eggleston, Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State. It was 8:30 o'clock when the assembly was called to order by A. D. Brockett, President of the Chamber of Commerce, under whose auspices the meeting was held.

Mr. Brockett introduced Dr. W. M. Smith, chairman of the City School Board; who made a few appropriate remarks concerning the aims of the School Board toward expanding the educational facilities of Alexandria, and the many things needed to perfect the system in this city. The doctor rapidly reviewed school work in Alexandria, the need of another building for the use of boys a new high school, more teachers, better pay for the teachers, etc.

At the close of Dr. Smith's remarks Mr. Brockett introduced Mr. Eggleston who delivered an interesting, exhaustive and amusing talk on public schools, good roads, improved streets in cities and new and modern school houses. He also devoted a considerable part of the time he spoke to scientific farming, boys' own clubs and the labors of girls in raising vegetables. He interspersed his remarks with amusing anecdotes, apt illustrations fitting and references. Towards the close of his address the speaker made certain observations concerning public schools of Alexandria.

The speaker was roundly applauded during the delivery of his address. Fine music was discoursed at times during the evening.

LENA RIVERS TONIGHT AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The offering at the Opera House this evening and tomorrow evening will be the dramatization of that well known and widely read novel, "Lena Rivers" in which Miss Clara Turner will be seen in the sweet character of Lena, who has been made to suffer much humiliation for which she is not responsible and brings out all the characters of the book and puts them upon the stage in the real life, and those who have read the book may see the trials of Durward Belmont and the happenings of Aunt Granny and Josiah and with the comedy situations between Lena and her friend Joel Slocum from Oakland Mass her home town. Mr. Hammond will portray Durward Belmont while Mr. Barry will act the role of Joel Slocum, the play will be prettily staged. The last two days of the week with the matinee on Saturday will usher in the celebrated play of "Down East" with all its characters and coloring of those days so long ago—happy and well spent.

HORSE STARTED TO RUN AWAY.

While on the way to the scene of the fire yesterday afternoon the horse attached to Chief Engineer Gronau's buggy took flight on King street, near Patrick, and while he was endeavoring to keep it from running away it fell and the chief was thrown from the vehicle to the back of the horse. Mr. Gronau fell to the street, but was on his feet in an instant, when he seized the reins and brought the frightened animal to a standstill. The incident caused some excitement for a time.

The alarm of fire shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon was caused by the partial burning of a Southern Railway watch box at Henry and Orondo streets. The blaze was extinguished before the arrival of the fire department. The damage was slight.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

Miss Mary Harrington Becomes Bride of Mr. Douglas Ramsay at Methodist Church South.

The Methodist Episcopal Church South, was filled to its utmost capacity last night at the beautiful wedding of Miss Mary Ethel Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thaddeus Harrington and Mr. Douglas Ramsay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. M. Canter, pastor of the church. The church was beautifully decorated in banks of palms, and masses of pink and white chrysanthemums, pink and white being the color scheme. The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She was beautiful in a gown of white chiffon with pearls and princesses and trimmed with pearls and Irish lace. Her veil was of tulle caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. Her only ornament was a pearl pendant the gift of the groom.

The maid of honor was Miss Margaret Patie Fluke who wore a most becoming dress of pink crepe de chine trimmed in pink fringe and messaline, her bouquet was pink roses.

Miss Helen Marion Corbett was bridesmaid, her attractive costume was white and pink, white embroidered net trimmed in pink and over pink messaline. Pink chrysanthemums were the flowers she carried.

The flower girls were little Miss Rebekah Lillian Harrington, sister of the bride and little Miss Inez Gwyn Moore, who wore dainty little white dresses with pink ribbons and carried baskets filled with pink rose buds.

Mr. Ramsay's best man was his brother, Mr. Dennis Ramsay of Baltimore. Mr. Alfred Griffith Uhler, Mr. Warren S. Grubbs, Mr. William N. Harper, Mr. O. Ashby Reardon, and Mr. Frank Vernon Quigley, of Baltimore.

An informal reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride at which only the immediate members of the two families were present. The house was decorated in palms, cut flowers and autumn leaves. The bride and groom left after the reception on a tour through the north. The brides traveling costume was a brown tailored suit with large black velvet picture hat trimmed in French plumes. After December the first, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay will be at home to their friends on Wednesdays at 903 Prince street.

This popular young couple were the recipients of many handsome and attractive presents.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Thomas Seddon Talliferro and children, of Rocky Springs, Wyoming, Miss Clara A. Moore, of Wyoming, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Congor, of Harrisonburg, Va., Mr. Minnie Newton Wheeler, of North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller Reese and the little Misses Reese, of Washington, Mr. Dennis Ramsay, of Baltimore, Rev. and Mrs. William Ambrose Brown, of Portsmouth, Va., and Mr. Frank Vernon Quigley, of Baltimore.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Officer Gill today arrested Omeola and William Moss, two colored boys, charged with entering the stores of Aaron Katz and Kaufman Bros., and stealing clothing and shoes. Yesterday the boys disposed of a pair of pantaloons and a vest, a dealer in second hand goods having purchased them. These Officer Beach later recovered. Officer Gill secured a pair of pants, a vest and a pair of shoes which it is alleged were stolen by the prisoners.
